Except as otherwise provided by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation and subject to the provisions set forth in paragraph (b) below, each stockholder of the Corporation shall be entitled at each meeting of stockholders to one vote for each share of capital stock of the Corporation standing in his name on the record of stockholders of the Corporation:

(i) on the date fixed pursuant to the provisions of Section 7 of Article V of these By-Laws as the record date for the determination of the stockholders who shall be entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting; or

Unless required by statute, or determined by the chairman of the meeting to be advisable, the vote on any question need not be by ballot. On a vote by ballot, each ballot shall be signed by the stockholder voting, or by his proxy, if there by such proxy, and shall state the number of shares voted.

Part A. Notification to Corporation of Interest in Relevant Corporation Stock.

Where a stockholder:

(i) knows that he has acquired an interest in Relevant Corporation Stock or that any other person has acquired an interest in Relevant Corporation Stock of which he is a registered holder, or ceases to be interested in Relevant Corporation Stock or knows that any other person has ceased to be interested in Relevant Corporation Stock of which he is the registered holder (whether or not retaining an interest in other Relevant Corporation Stock); or

(ii) becomes aware that he has acquired an interest in Relevant Corporation Stock or that any other person has acquired an interest in Relevant Corporation Stock of which he is a registered holder, or becomes aware that he has ceased to be interested in Relevant Corporation Stock or that any other person has ceased to be interested in Relevant Corporation Stock of which he is the holder of record; or

(iii) other than in circumstances within sub-Part A(i) or A(ii) of this section 9:

1. is aware at the time when it occurs of any change of circumstances affecting facts relevant to the application of this section 9 to an existing interest of his in Relevant Corporation Stock or an existing interest of any other person in Relevant Corporation Stock of which he is the registered holder, or
2. otherwise becomes aware of any such facts (whether or not arising from any such change of circumstances), then he shall become obliged to notify the Corporation of (A) his interests (if any), in Relevant Corporation Stock and (B) to the extent he is lawfully able to do so, the interests of any other person in Relevant Corporation Stock of which he is the registered holder and, in the case of (B) only, shall use his reasonable endeavors to procure that such person notifies his interests in Relevant Corporation Stock to the Corporation.

(iv) A stockholder shall notify the Corporation of his interests (if any) in Relevant Corporation Stock if:

1. he has a notifiable interest immediately after the relevant time, but did not have such an interest immediately before that time;
2. he had a notifiable interest immediately before the relevant time, but does not have such an interest immediately after it; or
3. he had a notifiable interest immediately before the relevant time, and has such an interest immediately after it, but the percentage levels of his interest immediately before and immediately after that time are not the same so that his interest is in a different percentile above 3%.

(v) A stockholder shall, to the extent he is lawfully able to do so, notify the Corporation of the interests of any other person in the Relevant Corporation Stock of which he is the registered holder and use his reasonable endeavors to procure that such person makes such notification to the Corporation if:

1. such person has a notifiable interest immediately after the relevant time, but did not have such an interest immediately before that time; or
2. such person had a notifiable interest immediately before the relevant time, but not such an interest immediately after it; or

3. such person had a notifiable interest immediately prior to the relevant time, and such an interest immediately after it, but the percentage levels of his interest immediately before and immediately after that time are not the same.

In furtherance, but not in limitation, of the foregoing, each stockholder shall be required, in connection with casting a vote on any matter submitted to a stockholder vote or appointing a proxy to cast such a vote, to certify that he has complied with his obligations under this Section 9 or to provide any notification then required thereunder. Unless otherwise resolved by the Board of Directors, any stockholder failing to provide such certification or notice shall be deemed not to have properly cast a vote or appointed a proxy and such vote or proxy appointment shall be disregarded for purposes of determining the number of shares voted on the matter.

(vi) Any notification required by Parts A(i), A(ii) or A(iii) of this section 9 must be made in writing to the Corporation within the period of 2 days next following the day on which that obligation arises.

(vii) The notification shall specify the class or series of the Corporation's stock to which it relates, the class and series of class to which it relates, the type of other warrant, option or derivative security or right to which it relates (if applicable) and must also:

1. state the number of shares of stock in that class or series of the Corporation's stock in which the person making the notification knows he (or any other relevant person) had interests immediately after the time when the obligation arose; or
2. in case where the person making the notification (or any other relevant person) no longer has a notifiable interest in shares of stock in that class or series of the Corporation's stock, state that he (or that person) no longer has that interest.

(viii) A notification (other than one stating that a person no longer has a notifiable interest) shall include the following particulars, so far as known to the person making the notification at the date when it is made:

1. the identity of each registered holder of shares of stock to which the notification relates and the number of such shares of stock held by each of them; and
2. the nature of the relevant interests in such shares of stock.

(ix) A person who has an interest in Relevant Corporation Stock or knows or becomes aware that any other person has an interest in Relevant Corporation Stock of which he is the registered holder, that interest being notifiable, shall notify (and, if applicable, use his reasonable endeavours to procure that such other person shall notify) the Corporation in writing:

1. of any particulars in relation to those shares of stock which are specified in Part A(x); and
2. of any change in those particulars, of which in either case he becomes aware at any time after any interest notification date and before the first occasion following that date on which he comes under any further obligation of disclosure with respect to his interest in that class or series of the Corporation's stock. A notification required under this Part A(xi) shall be made within the period of 2 days next following the day on which it arises. The reference to an "interest notification date," in relation to a person's interest in Relevant Corporation Stock, is to either (A) the date of any notification made or procured by him with respect to his or any other person's interest under this Part or (B) where he has failed to make or use his reasonable endeavors to procure a notification, the date on which the period allowed for making it came to an end.

(x) A person who at any time has an interest in stock which is notifiable is to be regarded under Part A(xi) as continuing to have a notifiable interest in them unless and until the registered holder of the shares of stock in question comes under obligation to make or use his reasonable endeavors to procure a notification stating that he (or any other relevant person) no longer has such an interest in those shares of stock.

(xi) Where a person authorizes another (the "agent") to acquire or dispose of, on his behalf, interests in Relevant Corporation Stock, he shall secure that the agent notifies him immediately of acquisitions or disposals effected by the agent which will or may give rise to any obligation of disclosure imposed on him by this Part with respect to his interest in that class or series of the Corporation's stock.

Part B. Definitions. For purposes of this section 9, the following definitions shall apply as follows:

(i) "Relevant Corporation Stock" means: (A) the total of the par value of the Corporation's issued shares of all classes of stock carrying rights to vote in all circumstances at annual, special or any other meetings of the stockholders or to take action by written consent in lieu of meeting; and (B) the total of the Corporation's issued warrants to purchase shares of the Corporation's stock, and, for the avoidance of doubt: (C) references to Relevant Corporation Stock are to issued shares and warrants taken separately; and (D) where the Corporation has issued various classes of stock or warrants, references to Relevant Corporation Stock are to the par value of all issued shares of stock, or the total of the issued warrants, for each such class taken separately;

(ii) "interest" or "interested" means, in relation to the Relevant Corporation Stock, any interest of any kind whatsoever (whether direct, indirect or otherwise) in any stock comprised therein (disregarding any restraints or restrictions to which the exercise of any right attached to the interest in the share of stock is, or may be, subject) and without limiting the meaning of "interest" a person shall be taken to have an interest in a share of stock if:

1. he enters into a contract for its purchase by him (whether for cash or other consideration); or
2. not being the registered holder, he is entitled to exercise any right conferred by the holding of the stock or is entitled to control the exercise or non-exercise of any such right; or

3. he is a beneficiary of a trust where the property held in trust includes an interest in the stock; or
4. otherwise than by virtue of having an interest under a trust, he has a right to call for delivery of the stock to himself or to his order; or
5. otherwise than by virtue of having an interest under a trust, he has a right to acquire an interest in the stock or is under an obligation to take an interest in the stock; or
6. he has a right to subscribe for the stock.

whether in any case the contract, right or obligation is absolute or conditional, legally enforceable or not and evidenced in writing or not, and it shall be immaterial that a share in which a person has an interest is unidentifiable;

(iii) a person who has an interest in stock that is part of the Relevant Corporation Stock has a “notifiable interest” at any time when the aggregate par value of the stock in which he has such interests is equal to or more than 3 per cent (3%) of the par value of that class or series of the Corporation’s stock;

(iv) a person is taken to be interested in any shares of stock in which his spouse or any infant child or step-child of his is interested; and “infant” means a person under the age of 18 years;

(v) a person is taken to be interested in shares of stock if any corporation, person, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, trust or other any other entity is interested in them and:

1. that entity or its directors are accustomed to act or required to act in accordance with that person(s) directions or instructions; or
2. that person is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of one-third or more of the voting power at general meetings of that entity,
3. PROVIDED THAT (A) where a person is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of one-third or more of the voting power at general meetings of an entity and that entity is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of any of the voting power at general meetings of another entity (“the effective voting power”) then, for purposes of this section 9, sub-Part A(v)(2) above, the effective voting power is taken as exercisable by that person and (B) for purposes of this sub-Part A(v)(3), a person is entitled to exercise or control the exercise of voting power if he has a right (whether subject to conditions or not, whether presently or in the future) the exercise of which would make him so entitled or he is under an obligation (whether or not so subject) the fulfillment of which would make him so entitled.

(vi) “percentage level,” means the percentage figure found by expressing the aggregate par value of all the stock in the class or series of the Corporation’s stock concerned in which the person has interests immediately before or (as the case may be) immediately after the relevant time as percentage of the par value of that class or series of the Corporation's stock and rounding that figure down, if it is not a whole number, to the next whole number. Where the par value of that class or series of the Corporation's stock is greater immediately after the relevant time than it was immediately before, the percentage level of the person's interest immediately before (as well as immediately after) that time is determined by reference to the larger amount.

(vii) "relevant time" means:

1. in a case within the meaning of sub-Parts A(i) or A(iii)(1) of this Section 9, the time of the relevant event or change of circumstances; and
2. in a case within the meaning of Part A(ii) or Part A(iii)(2) of this Section 9, the time at which the person became aware of the facts in question.

Part C. Power of the Corporation to Investigate Interests in Stock.

(i) The Corporation may by notice in writing request any person whom the Corporation knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be or, at any time during the 3 years immediately preceding the date on which the notice is issued, to have been interested in Relevant Corporation Stock:

1. to confirm that fact or (as the case may be) to indicate whether or not it is the case; and
2. where he holds or has during that time held an interest (whether or not notifiable) in Relevant Corporation Stock, to give such further information as may be requested in accordance with Part C(ii) below.

(ii) A notice under Part C(i) may request the person to whom it is addressed:

1. to give particulars of his own past or present interest in Relevant Corporation Stock (held by him at any time during the 3-year period mentioned in Part C(i));
2. where the interest is a present interest and any other interest in the shares of stock subsists or, in any case, where another interest in the shares of stock subsisted during that 3-year period at any time when his own interest subsisted, to give (so far as is within his knowledge) such particulars with respect to that other interest as may be requested by the notice including, without limitation, of the identity of persons interested in the shares of stock in question;
3. where his interest is a past interest, to give (so far as is within his knowledge) particulars of the identity of the person who held that interest immediately upon his ceasing to hold it.

(iii) A notice under Part C(i) shall request any information given in response to the notice to be given in writing within such time as may be specified in the notice, being a period of not less than 14 days following service thereof.

(iv) This Part applies in relation to a person who has or previously had, or is or was entitled to acquire, a right subscribed for shares of stock in the Corporation which would on issue be Relevant Corporation Stock as it applies in relation to a person who is or was interested in Relevant Corporation Stock; and references above in this section to an interest in Relevant Corporation Stock and to shares of Relevant Corporation Stock are to be read accordingly in any case as including respectively any such right and shares which would on issue be Relevant Corporation Stock.

SECTION 10. Inspectors. The Board of Directors may, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, appoint one or more inspectors to act at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. If any of the inspectors so appointed shall fail to appear or act, the chairman of the meeting shall, or if inspectors shall not have been appointed, the chairman of the meeting may, appoint one or more inspectors. Each inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector at such meeting with strict impartiality and according to the best of his ability. The inspectors shall determine the number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation outstanding and the voting power of each, the number of shares represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, the validity and effect of proxies, and shall receive votes, ballots or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, count and tabulate all votes, ballots or consents, determine the results, and do such acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all stockholders. On request of the chairman of the meeting, the inspectors shall make a report in writing of any challenge, request or matter determined by them and shall execute a certificate of any fact found by them. No director or candidate for the office of director shall act as an inspector of an election of directors. Inspectors need not be stockholders.

SECTION 11. Action by Consent. Whenever the vote of stockholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken for or in connection with any corporate action, by any provision of statute or of the Certificate of Incorporation or of these By-Laws, the meeting and vote of stockholders may be dispensed with, and the action taken without such meeting and vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

ARTICLE III

Board of Directors

SECTION 1. General Powers. The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may exercise all such authority and powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

SECTION 2. Number, Qualifications, Election and Term of Office. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than one (1) nor more than eleven (11) directors, the exact number of which shall be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Thereafter, the number of directors may be fixed, from time to time, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors or by action of the stockholders of the Corporation. Any decrease in the number of directors shall be effective at the time of the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders unless there shall be vacancies in the Board of Directors, in which case such decrease may become effective at any time prior to the next succeeding annual meeting to the extent of the number of such vacancies. Directors need not be stockholders. Except as otherwise provided by statute or these By-Laws, the directors (other than members of the initial Board of Directors) shall be elected at the annual meeting of stockholders. Each director shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, or until his death, or until he shall have resigned, or have been removed, as hereinafter provided in these By-Laws.

SECTION 3. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such place or places, within or without the State of Delaware, as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or as shall be specified in the notice of any such meeting.

SECTION 4. Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors shall meet for the purpose of organization, the election of officers and the transaction of other business, as soon as practicable after each annual meeting of stockholders, on the same day and at the same place where such annual meeting shall be held. Notice of such meeting need not be given. In the event such annual meeting is not so held, the annual meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at such other time or place (within or without the State of Delaware) as shall be specified in a notice thereof given as hereinafter provided in Section 7 of this Article III.

SECTION 5. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such time and place as the Board of Directors may fix. If any day fixed for a regular meeting shall be a legal holiday at the place where the meeting is to be held, then the meeting which would otherwise be held on that day shall be held at the same hour on the next succeeding business day. Notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors need not be given except as otherwise required by statute or these By-Laws.

SECTION 6. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or by two or more directors of the Corporation or by the President.

SECTION 7. Notice of Meetings. Notice of each special meeting of the Board of Directors (and of each regular meeting for which notice shall be required) shall be given by the Secretary as hereinafter provided in this Section 7, in which notice shall be stated the time and place of the meeting. Except as otherwise required by these By-Laws, such notice need not state the purposes of such meeting. Notice of each such meeting shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to each director, addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, by first class mail, at least two days before the day on which such meeting is to be held, or shall be sent addressed to him at such place by telegraph, cable, telex, telecopier or other similar means, or be delivered to him personally or be given to him by telephone or other similar means, at least twenty-four hours before the time at which such meeting is to be held. Notice of any such meeting need not be given to any director who shall, either before or after the meeting, submit a signed waiver of notice or who shall attend such meeting, except when he shall attend for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

SECTION 8. Quorum and Manner of Acting. A majority of the entire Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, and, except as otherwise expressly required by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation or these By-Laws, the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors present thereat may adjourn such meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of any such adjourned meeting shall be given to all of the directors unless such time and place were announced at the meeting at which the adjournment was taken, in which case such notice shall only be given to the directors who were not present thereat. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally called. The directors shall act only as a Board and the individual directors shall have no power as such.

SECTION 9. Organization. At each meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, or, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board or if one shall not have been elected, the President (or, in his absence, another director chosen by a majority of the directors present) shall act as chairman of the meeting and preside thereat. The Secretary or, in his absence, any person appointed by the chairman shall act as secretary of the meeting and keep the minutes thereof.

SECTION 10. Resignations. Any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon its receipt. Unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

SECTION 11. Vacancies. Any vacancy in the Board of Directors, whether arising from death, resignation, removal (with or without cause), an increase in the number of directors or any other cause, may be filled by the vote of a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director or by the stockholders at the next annual meeting thereof or at a special meeting thereof. Each director so elected shall hold office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified.

SECTION 12. Removal of Directors. A director of the Corporation may only be removed from office for cause by action of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at an election of directors.

SECTION 13. Compensation. The Board of Directors shall have authority to fix the compensation, including fees and reimbursement of expenses, of directors for services to the Corporation in any capacity.

SECTION 14. Committees. The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, designate one or more committees, including an executive committee, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. Except to the extent restricted by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation, each such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution creating it, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which require it. Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and have such name as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board of Directors.

SECTION 15. Action by Consent. Unless restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be.

SECTION 16. Telephonic Meeting. Unless restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation, any one or more members of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

ARTICLE IV

Officers

SECTION 1. Number and Qualifications. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors and shall include the President and the Secretary. If the Board of Directors wishes, it either may also elect as an officer of the Corporation a Chairman of the Board and may elect other officers (including one or more Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, one or more Assistant Treasurers and one or more Assistant Secretaries) as may be necessary or desirable for the business of the Corporation. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, and no officer except the Chairman of the Board need be a director. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified, or until his death, or until he shall have resigned or have been removed, as hereinafter provided in these By-Laws.

SECTION 2. Resignations. Any officer of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice of his resignation to the Corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be specified therein, immediately upon receipt. Unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of any such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

SECTION 3. Removal. Any officer of the Corporation may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time, by the Board of Directors at any meeting thereof.

SECTION 4. Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board, if one shall have been elected, shall be a member of the Board, an officer of the Corporation and, if present, shall preside at each meeting of the Board of Directors or the stockholders. SECTION 5. The President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation. He shall, in the absence of the Chairman of the Board or if a Chairman of the Board shall not have been elected, preside at each meeting of the Board of Directors or the stockholders. He shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and chief executive officer and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 6. Vice-President. Each Vice-President, if any, shall perform all such duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors or the President.
